Newark 21 April 1863

Dear Debora

I was this morning astonished by the receipt of a letter from A. B. Corwin. I incl a letter to Stumphey which will explain the matter — the letter to me I now inclose that you may see that all orr my copy to Stumphey omitted the "Cousin Deb."

I wish you to hand my letter to Stumphey at once and I shall make no reply to A B C unless I hear from him.

I don't suppose that A is of the slightest consequence but that nasty Steel is wounded

165

trying to pick places I make mischief
When this business is over settled
I never intend to speak to one of that family again.

Washington Stearns
both books could be read and studied over them. and well

Yours truly
D. Webster

MS. A.S. 2.31.54